

SUMMER READING

This summer reading assignment really should be called summer writing!

Title: Burn After Writing: Teen by Rhiannon Shove
ISBN: 978-1-908211-37-8

Assignment: Complete the book up to p. 75. The last question you should answer is “My BFF”. We will finish the rest when we return. Yes, please, have your journal complete up to p. 75 on the first day of class. Do not write your answers on a piece of paper. Please write them in the book.

This is meant to be a time of self-reflection as this is the last time you will complete your summer reading for high school. Don’t rush this. Let this be a personal process. Go sit outside, slow down and think about what your answers mean to you.

See you in August,

Mrs. Wolff
